

Tara Ross

Tara Ross
VP, Ops and Client Delight

“Tara possesses superior written and verbal communication skills, is accurate and extremely well organized and has developed excellent relationships with the many constituents served by our area.

Tara consistently identifies and takes action on minor issues before they escalate into more significant problems and demonstrates a high level of commitment and accountability.”

“I’ve learned that people will forget what you did, but will never forget how you made them feel.”

Maya Angelou

Tara has a passion for efficiency and organization and strives for flawless execution. Conscientious and analytical, she is constantly re-evaluating to maximize efficiency and is eager to learn and adopt new technology.

Tara is integral to the stability and exponential growth of Footprint Leadership Inc. She successfully maintains an environment focused on user experience and delight while managing essential business processes from stakeholder reporting and logistics to research projects and tracking financial data.

A unique capacity for caring and connecting with people has allowed Tara to cultivate an extensive network and secure her status as an information maven. Liaising with clients, vendors and contract employees keeps Tara at the epicentre of Footprint business.

After graduating from nursing in 1994, she returned to school in 2000 to complete a Business Administration Diploma and HR Management certificate from Georgian College and a Degree in Psychology from Laurentian University.

Since that time she has completed an Adult Education certificate and has become a managing partner in her wife’s company; providing business consulting, design and web services.

Tara is also a passionate supporter and fundraiser for Junvenile Diabetes Research Foundation.

“I’ve known Tara for 3+ years now, and we have collaborated on a number of projects. She’s one of the easiest people to get along with that I have ever met. Tara is a phenomenal co-worker who exudes charisma, energy, and professionalism and it is always a sincere pleasure to be working together with her. She’s one in a million!”
